Overlook Views

- We reviewed the latest edition of the Overlook Views.
- A couple of changes were suggested. Such as moving the story about new businesses off the front page. and replacing it with information about the Neighborhood Greenways.

May General meeting

- We discussed agenda items for the May general meeting and decided that there was really nothing urgent. If something comes up in the next couple of weeks we will schedule a meeting but otherwise there will be no General May meeting.

Board Reports

- Alan stated the Overlook Views will be ready out after May 7th.
- Brad reported the Cycle Track...we are waiting for the city to respond to the problem with the street lights, they seem to be off and causing some back up on Greeley.
- Casey reported on the April 23rd Oregonian article mapping out how the city is spending the $$$ received on the homeless. We are also re-engaging with North Portland Doers. We will participate in the next meeting by listening to the suggestions and ideas that are being discussed.
- Casey also reported that Johnny Lewis, who is in charge of the One-Point-Contact for reporting homeless camps, is encouraging neighbors to continue to report camps that are of concern. The city is still doing sweeps but only about 3 a week, down for the 40-50 that were done a week prior to the pandemic. Reporting at least once a week will keep eyes on camps that have biohazards, garbage, and criminal activity on the list of camps, that we need to send social services and get the area clean up.
- Cynthia reported Overlook is getting a nature path.
